Art. 3 - Admission procedure and deadlines

Admission procedure will begin on 16 July 2018 and terminate at 2 p.m. on 24 August 2018.

To register, applicants must apply online according to the procedure below:

1. Register on the University portal through the page https://www.unimi.it/registrazione/ENG/registra.keb (not required of those already registered on the portal or in possession of University login credentials)
2. Access the online application services using their credentials: http://www.unimi.it/hpsifa/ENG/nonProfiledPage_100.html;
3. Choose a programme by selecting the correct description:
   a) BACHELOR’S PROGRAMMES IN POLITICAL, ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL SCIENCES, for Italian, European or equivalent candidates.
   b) One of the programmes mentioning the description “FOR VISA APPLICANTS”, for non-European applicants exempted from the exam.

Only degree programme can be selected and the choice is definitive.

4. Choose the location where the test will take place, it will be possible to indicate up to a maximum of two preferences in order of priority.
5. Pay the € 30.00 fee in one of the following ways:
   - using the “MAV” (notice of payment) form generated at the end of the online registration procedure;
   - by credit card (the only option available for applicants residing abroad).

Without exception and on pain of exclusion, payment must be made by the deadline for the registration.

The online admission form cannot be amended, nor it can be completed with additional documentations once it has been submitted.

A receipt (application for admission) is issued at the end of the online enrolment procedure and must be shown to the examining committee on the day of the exam. The receipt is the only document accepted as proof of registration for the admission exam.

Candidates may be excluded from the ranking list and cannot proceed with the enrolment if, during the online application, they declare false data.

Beside online application, non-UE candidates residing abroad must also submit a pre-application to the Italian diplomatic office in their country of origin, in accordance with the methods and deadlines set out in current previsions regarding the enrolment of foreign students in the university programmes published in the Ministry of Education, Universities and Research webpage http://www.studiare-initalia.it/studentistranieri.

Applicants with an upper secondary school diploma obtained abroad must upload their qualification and an eligible certification which demonstrates the final grade and the minimum and maximum possible grades of the system of grades applied (Eg: “Dichiarazione di valore in loco” issued by the Italian Embassy in the country where the qualification was awarded, certificate issued by the school attesting the final grade or the grades of every subjects of the last year of upper secondary school, if the system does not foresee a unique final grade).

Art. 4 - Disabled applicants

In order to ensure equal opportunities during the exam, applicants with disabilities who require extra time and/or specific aids - if in possession of a certificate of legal disability and/or acknowledgement of status of handicap under law 104/92 - must provide specific application (available at the following link: http://www.unimi.it/cataloghi/secreterie/Application_disabled.pdf) together with the above-mentioned certificate issued by the National Health Service or accredited specialists or facilities.

The scanned documents must be uploaded during the online admission procedure, within the deadline for admissions.

Art. 5 - Applicants with SLD

To the applicants with a diagnosis of specific learning disabilities (SLD) under law no. 170/2010 is granted an extra time until the 30% more time than that set for the other applicants. The committee will evaluate the received applications and, in order to ensure equal opportunities during the exam, will be able to consent the use of other compensatory tools taking into consideration the type of test to be taken and the type/degree of the candidate’s disability.

To be accorded the abovementioned measures, applicants with SLD must provide specific application (available at the following link: http://www.unimi.it/cataloghi/secreterie/Application_sld.pdf) together with appropriate certification issued by the National Health Service or accredited specialists or facilities (issued no more than three years earlier if the applicant was underage at the time of the issuance of the certification).

The scanned documents must be uploaded during the online admission procedure, within the deadline for admissions.

In case of request can not to be accepted, the applicant will have to take the test. The students indicated in point c) can directly enrol on the website at: www.unimi.it- SIFA online services.
Art. 7- Admission exam schedule and procedure

The admission exam will take place on 3 September 2018 at the Faculty of Political, Economic and Social Sciences, Via Conservatorio 7, Milan and at test centers in Brindisi, Padova, Palermo e Roma.

The test centres will be assigned according to the preferences expressed by applicants when they registered for the admission exam. Test centres (except Milan) have limited seats, therefore preferences will be considered with regards to the order of application. The final list of candidates assignment to a particular centre will be published on the webpage http://www.unimi.it/corsi_istituti/ENG/corsiUrla.jsp from 29 August 2018.

The test will be paper-based at the Milan venue and computer-based at other venues.

Candidates must arrive at 9:00 a.m. bearing the valid identity document indicated during exam registration. The exam will begin once candidate identification procedures are completed.

During the exam candidates cannot leave the room, use handwritten notes, texts of any kind, calculators or anything else specified before the start of the exam.

The committee and the supervisory staff will ensure that the abovementioned rules are observed and can adopt the necessary measures in case of non-observance of the same. For any matters not covered in this announcement, the provisions on the conduct of public competitions apply.

Art. 8 - Selection of non-EU applicants resident abroad

Non-EU applicants resident abroad for whom a number of places are reserved do not have to sit for the admission exam: the selection will be based on assessment of their personal and scholastic curriculum, taking linguistic skills in English or Italian into account, depending on the chosen programme.

For this purpose they should upload the following documents during the online registration procedure:

- curriculum vitae, inclusive of possible linguistic certificates different from the below listed;
- grades obtained in the final year of secondary school;
- upper secondary school diploma;
- a certificate of English or Italian language skills;
- motivation letter.

Non-EU candidates resident abroad can enrol only if they have passed the Italian language test organised by the University. For more details about the test and the exemptions, please address to http://www.unimi.it/ENG/admission/31192.htm#par31341

Applicants who chose the Politics and Economics curriculum of the degree programme in Political Science do not have to sit for the Italian language test.

Art. 9 - Examining committee

The examining committee is appointed by the appropriate academic bodies.
During the exam the committee will be assisted by teaching and administrative staff, who will be responsible for supervising and identifying candidates.

Art. 10 - Examination programme and assessment criteria

The exam consists in a test to assess the basic preparation related to three areas: linguistic-expressive ability, knowledge of current affairs and logical-mathematical skills.

The exam is prepared in Italian and English: it will be possible to select the language of execution of the test before the start of the test.

The test consists of 60 questions, 20 for each area. The total time available is 75 minutes.

Points are assigned as follows:
- Correct answer: 1 point
- No answer, wrong, deleted or illegible: 0 points

The ranking list will also be formulated on the basis of scholastic performance indicated by the candidate’s results in the final secondary school examination, with the following weighting:
- Admission exam results 75%
- Final secondary school examination results 25%

In the event of equal point scores, priority is given to the candidate with better scholastic performance. In the case of equal scholastic merit, priority is given to the better admission exam result, and in the case of further equal performance, priority is given to the younger candidate.

Students who have shown specific gaps in the areas of linguistic-expressive ability, knowledge of current affairs and logical-mathematical skills will have to follow the bridging courses (OFA) which will be organized in the first part of the academic year.

Art 11 - Ranking list publication and enrolment
