

CALL FOR SELECTION OF CANDIDATES TO AN INTERNATIONAL MASTER'S PROGRAM
LEADING TO THE AWARD OF A DOUBLE DEGREE
ACADEMIC YEAR 2019-2020

CORSO DI LAUREA MAGISTRALE IN SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT (TWO-YEAR MASTER'S PROGRAM IN SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT)

The University of Milan- UNIMI, with Universidad del País Vasco/Euskal Herriko Unibersitatea – UPV/EHU and Instituto Internacional de Sociología Jurídica de Oñati- IISJ, has agreed on a double-degree program involving the UNIMI's "Corso di laurea magistrale in Sustainable Development" and the UPV/EHU's "Master in Sociology of Law".

Structure of the international program leading to the award of the double degree

The "Corso di laurea magistrale in Sustainable Development" at UNIMI is a second-level university program lasting two years, for a total of 120 ECTS credits.

The "Master in Sociology of Law", organized at UPV/EHU in collaboration with IISJ, is a second-level university program lasting one year, for a total of 60 ECTS credits.

The double-degree international program agreed upon by UNIMI, IISJ and UPV/EHU consists of two full academic years, one in Milan and the other at IISJ-UPV/EHU, each worthing 60 ECTS credits.

In each academic year complementary courses and similar learning activities are taught and carried out at each of the two Universities: UNIMI students registered in the program will spend their first year at the home University and their second year at IISJ-UPV/EHU enrolling in the "Master in Sociology of Law" to complete their studies and defend their master's dissertation. IISJ-UPV/EHU students will register in UNIMI after the end of their IISJ-UPV/EHU master's program.

At the end of the double-degree international program, registered students successfully completing their studies will obtain the degree of "Laurea magistrale in Sustainable Development" and the degree of "Master in Sociology of Law".

Admission criteria

1. UNIMI will select for participation in the double-degree international program up to 5 students registered as first-year students in the academic year 2018/-2019 in the Sustainable Development program.
2. The following eligibility requirements must be satisfied at the moment of the application:
 - a. applicants must be regular students registered as first-year students in the Sustainable Development program for the academic year 2018/2019;
 - b. applicants must meet the English language requirements (level C1):

Applications

Documents required for admission in the exchange program between University of Milan and IISJ-UPV/EHU are the following:

1. copy of the identity card or passport (pdf/jpeg);
2. screenshot of the UNIMIA page stating the grades obtained in all the exams taken and the grade point average. Registrations of activities not yet recorded in the UNIMIA page must be enclosed as well (pdf/jpeg);
3. letter of motivation (pdf);
4. any other document or qualification deemed relevant to the selection (pdf).

Applicants must submit their application along with all the relevant documents above through the online platform elixForms.

Deadline: September, 6th - 12:00 pm (Italian local time).

Selection procedures

The applications will be assessed by a selection committee, chaired by Drs. Luigi Cominelli, Luigi Crema and Valeria Verdolini. After examining the applicants' dossiers, the committee will interview the candidates. The interview, in English, will take place at Sala Lettura, Sezione di Filosofia e Sociologia del Diritto, Dpt. Cesare Beccaria, Via Festa del Perdono 7, on September 10th, 2019 at 2 p.m.

Applicants unable to attend the interview due to circumstances beyond their control must give notice of said circumstances by e-mail enclosing any relevant supporting documentation. The Committee may decide to interview such applicants via video-conference.

After completing the interviews, the committee will rank the candidates according to their respective merit. For each candidate the overall score will be obtained by summing up the following partial scores:

1. academic career and grades obtained in the exams taken in the Sustainable Development program (up to 4/10);
2. motivations to enrol (up to 4/10);
3. interview (up to 2/10).

Only candidates achieving an overall score of at least 7/10 will qualify for the exchange program.

The final ranking will be published online on the University of Milan website here, by September, 13th. No personal communication will be sent to the candidates.

Ufficio Accordi e Progetti Internazionali per la Didattica e la Formazione will send the data of the selected candidates to the Host University for final approval and will contact selected students for information on administrative issues.

Financial aspects

Double-degree international program students shall have paid tuition fees to UNIMI in academic year 2018-2019. When enrolling at UPV/EHU in academic year 2019-2020 they will pay the standard UPV/EHU tuition fees. They will be waived all academic fees for academic year 2019-2020 at UNIMI except for regional taxes and administrative tuition fees.

Double-degree international program students will be covered with civil liability insurance and accident insurance provided by the University of Milan during the performance of their study activities at the Host University. Exchange students will personally provide for medical insurance coverage, when appropriate, during their stay abroad.

The University of Milan will award a contribution to travel and living costs abroad. The university contribution will be awarded according to ISEE statement submitted to Divisione Segreteria Studenti in AY 2018/2019.

The contribution awarding criteria will be as follows:
