Oct 2015-Oct 2018 at Dipartimento di Scienze della Terra "A. Desio" - Università degli Studi di Milano:

PhD Student

Thesis title: Characterization and modelling of complex geological architectures: The Quaternary fill of the Po Basin at the Po Plain-Apennines border (Lombardy, Italy). Supervisor: Prof R. Bersezio; co-supervisor: Dr. A. Comunian, PhD.

Activity: the research project aimed to develop geological, architectural and hydrostratigraphic models of the Quaternary sedimentary fill at the Po Plain-Northern Apennines border in Lombardy. The specific purpose was to elaborate the architectural and evolutionary model in a complex tectono-stratigraphic setting, by integrating field/subsurface data and interpretations of the geological evolution (Zuffetti et al., 2018a, 2018b, 2018c). Focus was on the bearings of multiscale stratigraphic and structural complexity on 3D geological models, by investigating the relationships between the features of the 4D geological reconstructions (descriptive "soft" data and geometrical "hard" models) and the corresponding modelled architectures at different scales. Major topics: Quaternary geology, Geological mapping, Geomorphology, Geopedology, GIS, 3D geo-modelling, (hydro-) Stratigraphy.

Field experience: Geological and geomorphological mapping and detailed pedo-stratigraphic descriptions in the southern Po Basin of Lombardy-IT.

Some attended courses/workshops:
