AWARDS, ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS, SCHOLARSHIPS

Year	Description of award
Fellowships and Conference Awards
2019-Present	Institute for Human Studies, Humane Studies Fellowship: The Humane Studies Fellowship is a non-residency, renewable award to assist students enrolled or planning to enroll in full-time PhD programs. Humane Studies Fellows not only gain financial aid, but also connect with IHS and our network of scholars working to advance classical liberal ideas in the academy. This includes access to academic advising and invitations to our career development seminars, research workshops, discussion colloquia, and other networking events.
2020	International Foundation for Research in Experimental Economics, Graduate Student Workshop: The International Foundation for Research in Experimental Economics graduate student workshop introduces selected graduate students to concepts in laboratory experimental economics and provides graduate students with the opportunity to earn cash payments by participating in laboratory experiments. Additionally, students have the opportunity to interact with experts in the field through lectures and a colloquium discussion.
2019	Institute for the Study of Religion, Economics and Society at Chapman University, Graduate Student Workshop: The Institute for the Study of Religion, Economics and Society workshop provides two days of intensive instruction, interaction, and feedback for a select group of graduate students. Each student must have a completed paper, and all papers will be circulated and studied in advance. Sessions will consist of presentations and discussion, with professors and students giving detailed feedback on each paper.
2018	Association for Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action, Millseen Doctoral Fellow: The Millesen Doctoral Fellows Seminar is an interdisciplinary award for Ph.D. students who have passed their comprehensive exams but have not yet defended their dissertation proposals. Students present and discuss their proposals in progress with faculty members in

	various fields studying non-profit organizations and charitable activity. The workshop is held the day prior to ARNOVA's annual conference.
2018	Association for the Study of Religion, Economics and Culture, Introduction to the Economics of Religion Workshop: The Introduction to the Economics of Religion workshop provides selected graduate students the opportunity to immerse themselves into the field by interacting with experts and pioneering researchers in the discipline. The workshop is held the day prior to ASREC's annual conference.
