18 November 2020

National Academic Qualification (Abilitazione nazionale) as Associate professor (Professore Associato - Seconda Fascia) in Sociologia Generale - Settore Concorsuale 14/C1 - SPS/07 - Sociologia Generale, obtained on 18/11/2020.

November 2011-April 2016

PhD in Urban and Local European Studies (Urbeur)

Dissertation title: "Immigrant self-employment and transnational practices: the case of Moroccan entrepreneurs in Amsterdam and Milan"

- As part of my doctoral studies, I conducted a research on Moroccan entrepreneurs in two European cities: Amsterdam and Milan. I created the questionnaire for the research and I interviewed 70 entrepreneurs, with the support of a team of four interviewers – whom I personally coordinated. Based on the analysis of the data and narratives collected, I wrote a book and published several articles in international peer-reviewed journals. To communicate the results of my research to a broad audience, I also prepared a policy report.

WORK AND RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

January 2021–

Head of Research

Migration Policy Group (MPG) – Brussels, Belgium

- As Head of Research, I coordinate MPG's research activities and I oversee MPG's research agenda development. I conduct comparative analysis of migration and integration statistics and policies. In particular I work on the following projects:

- H2020 HumMingBird, on the changing nature of migration flows and the drivers of migration, with a focus on migration and integration policies.
- MIPEX (Migrant Integration Policy Index), on the comparative analysis of integration policies in 52 countries (EU28, OECD, ETFA countries, and other countries such as Argentina, Brazil, China, and India). The project employs quantitative indicators to measure policies and policy effects.
- REGIN, on comparative analysis of integration policies at the regional level. The project employs quantitative indicators to measure policies and policy effects.

August 2018- December 2020

Researcher

Migration Policy Group (MPG) – Brussels, Belgium

- I was responsible of monitoring statistical and policy developments on the topic of migrant integration. Based on this, I produced policy briefs and analyses. In particular I worked on the following projects:
 - H2020 Cross-Migration, on research on migration studies and in particular on migration policies and indicators to assess migration policies.
 - H2020 HumMingBird, on the changing nature of migration flows and the drivers of migration, with a focus on migration and integration policies.
 - H2020 Resoma, on policy dialogue at the European level on migration and integration issues.
 - MIPEX (Migrant Integration Policy Index), on the comparative analysis of integration policies in 52 countries (EU28, OECD, ETFA countries, and other countries such as Argentina, Brazil, China, and India). The project employs quantitative indicators to measure policies and policy effects.
 - MEGA and New Entrepreneurship Support projects, on policies to support migrant entrepreneurs.

Private sector

2017- to date

Research Associate

Group for Research on Ethnic Relations, Migration & Equality (GERME), Université libre de Bruxelles, Brussels.

As research associate, I cooperate with the research activities of the research group, such as the research on Italian migrant entrepreneurs in Brussels.

Public sector

March 2018- July 2018

Policy Officer at DG Employment, Social Affairs & Inclusion

European Commission – Brussels, Belgium

- At DG Employment (Job Creation Unit), I cooperate with colleagues on projects about the following topics:
 - Future of work: collaborative and platform economy;
 - EU policies to tackle negative effect of industrial restructuring (redundancies of workers), through both education and social dialogue policies;
 - Comparative analysis and mapping of social enterprises and their ecosystems in 35 European countries;
 - Social economy and migration;
 - Migrant entrepreneurs and microcredit (EaSI - Employment and Social Innovation programme; analysis of EU trends, in cooperation with OECD).

Public sector

August 2017–December 2017

Researcher for the European project ‘Skills2Work’ (labour market integration of migrants and refugees)

International Organisation for Migration (IOM), The Hague, The Netherlands

- My main tasks were to conduct desk research and consultations with various stakeholders and to produce a research document which mapped the current state of labour market integration of refugees in the EU. For the project, I focused on identification and recognition of skills and policies to foster labour market integration of migrants. I cooperated with policy officers from the European Commission – DG Employment, DG Home and DG Grow.

Private sector

November 2014-July 2017

Post-doc researcher (entrepreneurship in developing countries: inclusive growth)

Eindhoven University of Technology, Eindhoven, The Netherlands

- In the frame of the project “Changing the mindset of Ugandan entrepreneurs: from Muppets to Gazelles”, I managed the fieldwork for a research conducted among entrepreneurs in Uganda, coordinating a team of 6 research assistants, who interviewed 608 entrepreneurs. I was also responsible for a follow-up of the survey (longitudinal study). A part of the project was on urban-rural migrant entrepreneurs in the country capital. Beside this, my tasks were to: write scientific publications (for example I published an article in one of the top-5 journals in sociology); prepare policy briefings and reports (three, in particular); support the creation of two resource centres for entrepreneurs in Uganda.

Public sector

January 2016-February 2016

Visiting Researcher

Makerere University Business School (MUBS), Makerere University, Kampala, Uganda

- As visiting researcher, I participated in the activities of the MUBS.

MAIN STUDIES CONDUCTED

2019-ongoing Integration policies and welfare regimes: a comparative analysis of 52 countries, role: principal investigator, Migration Policy Group, Brussels.

The research compares integration policies in 52 destination European and non-European countries (EU28, OECD countries). The research analyses the nature of those policies, to identify the different approaches to integration. In particular, the research focuses on how different welfare regimes influence the approach to integration that analysed countries adopt.

2019-ongoing The assessment of migration and integration policies, and their effect on migration trends and integration outcomes, role: principal investigator, Migration Policy Group, Brussels.

The research aims to understand the combined effect of migration and integration policies on migrant integration outcomes. The research makes use of quantitative data from the European Survey EU-MIDIS and available data on policies (IMPIC, MIPEX, etc.)

2019-ongoing Integration policies at the regional level, role: principal investigator, Migration Policy Group, Brussels.

The research compares integration policies in 15 regions in EU countries. The research analyses the nature of those policies, and more in general the entire policy cycle linked to integration of migrants.

2018-2020 The social capital of Italian entrepreneurs in Brussels, role: principal investigator, ULB (Free University of Brussels), Brussels.

The project focuses on Italian entrepreneurs in Brussels, and it compares first and second generations that own a small business in the food sector. The project focuses on entrepreneurs' social networks - personal and business contacts, which create their social capital. The project employs a mixed method approach which combines qualitative questions and measures from social network analysis.

2017 Skills2work: policies for labour market integration of beneficiaries of international protection, role: investigator, International Organization for Migration (IOM), the Netherlands.

The project analysed the current state of labour market integration of refugees in the EU and its Member States. I conducted desk research and consultations with various stakeholders to map the current state of policies on identification and recognition of skills and policies to foster labour market integration of BIPs.

2015-2017 Changing the mindset of Ugandan entrepreneurs: from Muppets to Gazelles, role: post-doc researcher, Eindhoven University of Technology, Eindhoven.

The project focused on the factors that boost micro and small businesses in a developing country and the main barriers entrepreneurs have to overcome. A part of the project focused on urban migrant entrepreneurs, a relevant phenomenon in Uganda. In the frame of the project, I managed the fieldwork for the research conducted among entrepreneurs in Uganda, coordinating a team of 6 research assistants, who interviewed 608 entrepreneurs. I was also responsible for a follow-up of the survey (longitudinal study).

2011-2016 Immigrant self-employment and transnational practices: the case of Moroccan entrepreneurs in Amsterdam and Milan, role: PhD researcher, University of Amsterdam/University of Milan-Bicocca, Amsterdam/Milan.

My PhD research focused on migrant entrepreneurship and transnational practices. I conducted a research on Moroccan entrepreneurs in two European cities: Amsterdam and Milan. The research employed a mixed method approach which combines qualitative questions and measures from social network analysis. It analysed how, namely thanks to what factors and resources, migrant entrepreneurs with a transnational business identify and seize business opportunities. I conducted 70 interviews with Moroccan migrant entrepreneurs in Amsterdam and Milan.

2013 Policies for migrants' integration in small towns, role: junior researcher, University of Milan-Bicocca, Milan (PRIN – research project of national relevance, funded by the Italian Ministry of Education, University and Research (MIUR), scientific coordinator, prof. dr. Serena Vicari).

The project analysed local policies for migrants' integration in Lombardy (Italy). I conducted desk research and I interviewed representatives from local public authorities in Lombardy.

2012 Entrepreneurial practices and immigrant integration in Genova, role: junior researcher, University of Genova/ Fondazione Cultura Genova Municipality.

The project analysed integration pathways of migrant entrepreneurs, by focusing on how conducting the business changed the (perceived) integration of the respondents. I conducted 27 interviews with migrant entrepreneurs in Genova, Italy.
