

International 4EU+ Semester in Geography

Call for applications for a short-term stay abroad in the Fall Semester 2023/24

The 4EU+ Alliance is breaking new ground for a joint teaching offer of the participating universities. In this context, plug-in modules were developed for the study of geography at the partner universities.

For the selected students, there is the possibility for a stay of at least two months (October-December) at one of the universities listed below. During this time, two or three modules with a total of up to 30 ECTS can be completed. Funding is provided by an Erasmus scholarship (€ 300/month).

Who can apply

Application requirements are listed below:

1. Being regularly enrolled at the University of Milan for the 2022/2023 academic year, on the Analisi, pianificazione e gestione sostenibile del territorio or Environmental Change and Global Sustainability or Environmental and food economics;
2. Being current with tuition and fee payments;
3. Not being a recipient of any other EU grant for stays abroad that overlap, even partially, with the 4Eu+ Semester period.

All students must be enrolled in a study programme of the University for the academic year 2023/2024 upon departure, and maintain this status during their period abroad.

Study Content

At each university, two (three at the Sorbonne Université) 4EU+ Modules are available, resulting in a total of up to 30 ECTS. These modules are recognised as credit by the University of Milan.
