

ERASMUS PROGRAMME – KEY ACTION 1
BLENDED INTENSIVE PROGRAMME CALL FOR APPLICATIONS
4EU+ Rediscovering hope? Theological and literary contributions to European self-identification
A.A. 2025/2026

1. BLENDED INTENSIVE PROGRAMME

The Erasmus Blended Intensive Programme (BIP) is a new short-term intensive mobility option envisaged by the new Erasmus+ 2021-2027 programme. Using innovative teaching and learning approaches, it offers an international experience that combines short-term physical mobility with a mandatory virtual component.

2. DESCRIPTION

Blended Intensive programme - Title	4EU+ 'Rediscovering hope? Theological and literary contributions to European self-identification' - Field of education: 'Humanities: Theology, Literature' - Flagship 2 'Europeanness: multilingualism, pluralities, citizenship'
Academic Tutors	Prof. Paola F. Moretti Prof. Amedeo Raschieri
Department	Department of Literary Studies, Philology and Linguistics
Courses of study	Modern philology (LM-14), Ancient philology, literature and history (LM-15), PhD programme in Literature, Arts and Environmental Heritage
Number of participants	Max 5 students (from the University of Milan)
Partners	Charles University (Prague), University of Geneva, Heidelberg University, University of Copenhagen
Period	Seminar/virtual activity: January-March 2026 Physical activity: 2-6 March 2026
Length of virtual mobility period	20 hours (15 pre- and 5 post-seminar)
Length of in-person activities	5 days
Location	Heidelberg
No. of credits awarded	3
Description	The virtual 'mentoring' phase (January-March 2026): 1. one-to-one meetings: each MA and PhD student is assigned to a senior academic from a different university whose expertise aligns with their research topic. This will offer structured support for the development of the students' research projects in the next months. 2. online general meeting on 15th January 2026, to exchange on the overarching seminar theme, laying the groundwork for academic collaboration and intellectual community. The 'in presence' phase: 2-6 March 2026: In-Person Seminar and Public Event. It features presentations, feedback sessions, workshops, and interdisciplinary dialogue, culminating in a public event. The final public event offers participants the opportunity to present their findings to a broader audience, fostering a dialogue on hope in the context of European identity and current challenges.

The virtual post-seminar Phase (March 2026): The final virtual phase focuses on evaluating the public event, debriefing academic and organizational processes, and exploring future collaborations. Mentoring will continue during this phase, with a particular emphasis on discussing the impact of the BIP on the participants' academic development.
