STUDY AWARD #FINDTHEORANGE - A. Y. 2025/2026

THE RECTOR

- Having regard to the Study Award Regulations, issued by Rector's decree no. 4728/21 on 10 February 2021;
- Having regard to the proposal submitted on 19 November 2025 by the non-profit organisation #FindTheOrange for the establishment of a study award for the 2025/2026 academic year with the aim of promoting social progress through the development and responsible use of technology and innovation, encouraging study and knowledge in the fields of technology and science;
- Having regard to the resolution passed by the Academic Senate on 9 December 2025, which approved the establishment of said study award for the a. y. 2025/2026;

HEREBY DECREES AS FOLLOWS:

The University of Milan is accepting applications for a study award amounting to €2,500.00 (two thousand five hundred euros), to be granted to a student enrolled on track, during a. y. 2025/2026, in the second year of the Master's degree programme in Human Centered Artificial Intelligence. To be eligible for said award, students must have earned at least 90% of their first-year university credits (CFU/ECTS) by 30 September 2025, with a weighted grade average not lower than 28/30. Additionally, their University ISEE 2025 (Equivalent Economic Situation Indicator, which for 2025 is calculated on the income and assets held in 2023) must not exceed €35,000.00.

Applications must be submitted between 9 am on 19 January 2026 and 12 am on 20 March 2026 by completing the following form:

https://elixforms.unimi.it/rwe2/module_preview.jsp?MODULE_TAG=Premio_FINDTHEORANGE_studenti2526

The online form will not be accessible after 12 am on 20 March 2026.

Applicants may not change or add anything to their submission once the application deadline has expired.

When completing the application form, applicants are required to upload the following documents in PDF format:

- Self-certification form attesting to their enrolment in the second year of the Master's degree in Human Centered Artificial Intelligence during the a. y. 2025/2026, including the list of all exams passed and the respective grades, plus their weighted grade average (the form can be downloaded online from the former SIFA online services);
- University ISEE certificate 2025 (the ISEE value is calculated on the income and assets held in 2023).

UNIVERSITÀ DEGLI STUDI DI MILANO

The Rector shall appoint a Selection Board and grant the study award to the applicant proposed by said Board.

Pursuant to article 3, paragraph 3, of the Study Award Regulations, the award is indivisible. The award is subject to withholding taxes as required by Italian law and will be disbursed to the winner in a single payment.

The outcome of the competition will be communicated to all applicants at the email address which they entered into their application form. For further information, please write a message via Informastudenti → Fees and Benefits → Scholarships.

Should the winner renounce the study award on grounds of its incompatibility with another benefit already granted to him/her, or due to his/her withdrawal from studies during the a. y. 2025/2026, he/she shall return the entire sum of the award to the University.

In this case, the study award will be granted to the next-ranked applicant.

Pursuant to article 8, paragraph 2, of the Study Award Regulations, a study award may not be granted by the University to anyone who has already won a previous award on the basis of the same qualifications.

The person in charge of the competition referred to herein, as defined within the meaning of Law no. 241 of 7 August 1990, is Mr. Stefano Salvato, Head of the Scholarships and Grants Office (Via S. Sofia 9/1, 20122 Milan). The contact person for the competition is Ms. Ludovica Savino (ludovica.savino@unimi.it, tel. 02-50313663).

In accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679, the University undertakes to maintain confidentiality over any information provided by each applicant. All data will be processed solely for purposes related to the competition and to manage the applicant's relationship with the University, in compliance with current legislation.

Milan, 22 December 2025
