Personal data and any special categories of personal data will be collected and processed for the purposes set out in the full notice. The legal basis for data processing is the performance of a task of public interest, pursuant to the authority vested in the Data Controller (Article 6, paragraph 1, letter e of the GDPR).

Personal data may be disclosed, as Data Processors, to external parties, such as developers, Webconference platforms and assistance service providers.

The exams carried out using the Moodle + Proctoring system are recorded for surveillance purposes. The recordings will not be kept for more than 30 days, after which they will be automatically deleted. In the event of any breaches, or for any checks requested by students excluded for improper behaviour, data may be kept for a longer period of time and possibly transmitted to the competent authorities.

Data subjects may exercise the rights recognized by the GDPR, in particular the right to access their personal data and have them deleted, pursuant to art. 15 et seqq. of the GDPR. Please refer to the full notice for further information.
