

Migration Studies and New Societies

Migration Days 17-22 May, 2021

International and cross-disciplinary collaboration in higher education is one of the central objectives of the 4EU+ European University Alliance (4EU+ Alliance (4euplus.eu)).

The 4EU+ Project "Migration and New Societies", which is coordinated by the University of Milan in cooperation with Charles University - Prague, Sorbonne University - Paris, and the University of Warsaw, aims at developing teaching projects on migration related issues.

To implement the Project, promote an in-depth reflection and stimulate an informed debate on the multi-faceted implications and future of migrations, the University of Milan, together with other partner Universities, organizes one week of teaching activities between May 17th and 22nd May, 2021.

4EU+ Migration Days will feature on-line seminars and workshops for 120 students coming from all the partner Universities. Students who actively participate in a minimum of 8 events (16 hours) and who attend the mandatory inaugural session that will take place on 17th May will obtain 3 ECTS.

All the activities – save for the inaugural session – are open to a limited number of participant students. The proposed activities shall consist of two academic hours of interactive teaching sessions and focus at least on one of the following TOPICS:

1 Migration Policies in Europe

2 Borders Management, Mobility, Governance of Migration, Irregular Migration

3 Asylum Seekers and Refugees

4 Racism and Discriminations

5 New Societies and Integration

6 Migration and the Media

7 Labour Market and International Labour Migration

8 Past, present and future of migration in Europe and beyond

WHO MAY APPLY

Migration Days' events are open to students coming from the University of Milan who prove to meet the following requirements:

- Being regularly enrolled in a two-year master's degree (among the following: Extraeuropean Languages and Literatures; Global Politics And Society; Historical Studies; International Relations (REL); Law and Sustainable Development; Modern Literature; Philosophical Sciences; Politics, Philosophy and Public Affairs (Pppa)Social Sciences for Research and Institutions (GOV) or in the 4th year of a five-year (single cycle) master's degree (Law), or in a PhD, for the academic year 2020/2021.
- Average mark: not below 25/30.
- Applicants whose native language is not English require B2 English Language Certification.

Applications will close at 2pm on 22 April 2021 and must be submitted online, via the dedicated platform.