CALL FOR IDEAS

NON SOLO LIMITI

Correctional Facility Project by the University of Milan

Within the activities already implemented by the University to guarantee that incarcerated people enjoy their right to education, the University of Milan, thanks to a partnership signed originally in 2015 with the Regional Board of Correctional Facility Administration (Provveditorato Regionale dell'Amministrazione Penitenziaria - PRAP), is starting an awareness campaign called NON SOLO LIMITI addressed to the whole university community within the framework of its Correctional Facility Project.

The whole university community is being called upon to commit within the framework of the Third Mission and to pursue the goals laid down in the UN 2030 Agenda in order to contribute to the gradual reintegration and rehabilitation of people deprived of their freedom for being offenders.

The NON SOLO LIMITI campaign is aimed at collecting project ideas, best practices, education programmes, recreational activities, actions to prevent and curb recidivism, which shall all pursue the rehabilitation and gradual social reintegration of people deprived of their freedom for being offenders.

Expectations:

Project proposals, actions, workshops, didactic activities, teaching activities, tutoring, scientific research etc. to support and take care of people deprived of their freedom for being offenders.

Potential Proponents:

Professors, researchers, PhD students, research fellows, research associates, scholarship-for-promising-graduate holders, students, technical-administrative-library personnel etc. of the University of Milan in support of this awareness campaign.

Steps to be followed:

The NON SOLO LIMITI awareness campaign for a.y. 2021/2022 consists of four STAGES:

1st STAGE
