

Call for Applications for 2023 Housing Grants for Non-Resident Students Enrolled at the University of Milan in Academic Year 2023/2024 (art. 1, paragraphs 526 and 527 of the budget law of 30 december 2020, no. 178; art. 1, paragraph 580 of the law 29 december 2022, no. 197) approved with rectoral decree no.3580/23 on 06 July 2023.

It is issued the call for applications for the assignment of the contribution for the housing rental costs incurred during the calendar year 2023 by off-site university students enrolled in the a.y. 2022/2023 at the University of Milan.

Article 1 – Eligible Students and General Application Requirements

1. Eligible candidates are non-resident students enrolled at the University of Milan in academic year 2022/2023 who:

- reside in a place located in a province other than that where the leased property is located;
- hold a regular lease agreement in 2023, executed no later than 9 August 2023, for a property near the university department they attend.

2. Applicants for 2023 housing grants must meet the following requirements:

- have a University ISEE indicator not exceeding €20,000. To this end, it will be considered the most recent ISEE, as held by the University for academic year 2022/2023;
- have not been beneficiaries of any << other public grants for housing >> for academic year 2022/2023 including housing services as well as financial aid.

The student may also use the current ISEE ("ISEE corrente") pursuant to art. 9 of DPCM 159/2013 when, despite already having a valid ISEE, there is a change in the work situation or an interruption of social security, welfare and indemnity payments not included in the total income (as declared for IRPEF purposes) for one or more members of the family unit, or when there is a decrease greater than 25% in the overall income capacity of the family unit.

Foreign students residing in a place located in a province other than the one where the leased property is located, and with a family unit residing and producing income abroad, can submit their application even if they do not hold the University ISEE certificate, subject to the above requirements, to be assessed by the competent University office.

Article 2 – Application Deadlines and Procedures

1. Applications may be submitted from 10 July 2023 to 9 August 2023.

2. Applications must be submitted online at <https://www.unimi.it/it/studiare/borse-premi-mense-e-alloggi>

3. When completing the online application, the following documents must be attached:

- copy of the lease agreement registered;
- registration receipt issued by the Revenue Agency.

4. Failure to submit the aforementioned documentation or submission of an irregular document shall result in the forfeiture of the benefit.

Article 3 - Determination of Financial Needs and Allocation of Funds by the MUR

1. The needs are determined in relation to the number of students enrolled in state universities in the a.y. 2022/2023 falling within the case indicated by art. 1, paragraphs 526 and 527 of the law of 30 December 2020, no.178 and by art. 1, paragraph 580 of the law of 29 December 2022, no. 197, who, upon submission of a specific application to participate in the tender and following all the checks, verifications and any reviews carried out by the university on the applications presented, are definitively identified as beneficiaries of the contribution.
2. Within 30 September 2023, the University of Milan, after reviewing the applications also in terms of the prohibition to cumulate the benefit with other public grants for housing, shall notify the Ministry of University and Research (MUR) of the number of students entitled to the grant.
3. On the basis of the data received, The Ministry of University and Research, identifies, with an interministerial decree, the amount of the total contribution due to each University and assigns to each individual University the share of the resources based on the number of students from the same communicated to the Ministry.

Article 4 – Payment of the Grant to Students

1. The University of Milan, based on the funds allocated by the MUR, shall pay the grant to beneficiary students.
2. The grants shall be disbursed by bank transfer to “Carta La Statale”, which must be activated as “Flash Up Studio La Statale”, or to the IBAN provided when completing the online application.
