For summer 2024, the SLAM - University of Milan Language Centre organises International Courses of Italian Language and Culture in Gargnano on Lake Garda. The courses are open to international users of the University and foreign citizens.

The University of Milan international users can apply for a scholarship, whereas foreign citizens can submit a self-funded application whose participation fee is proportional to their country of origin.

Each course round lasts three weeks and consists of 90-hour teaching of Italian language and culture:

- ❖ 1st round from 1 July to 20 July 2024
- ❖ 2nd round from 22 July to 10 August 2024

Daily activities (from Monday to Friday):

- ❖ 9.00 a.m. - 1.00 p.m. Italian language classes held by experienced and highly qualified teachers. Small groups divided according to the different proficiency levels.
- ❖ 1.00 p.m. - 5.30 p.m. Lunch and free time
- ❖ 5.30 p.m. - 7.15 p.m. Conferences on literature, art, theatre, cinema, music and history, related to Italian culture and society, held by lecturers.

The programme also includes cultural and didactic activities, among which an opera performance at the Arena of Verona, a visit to the ancient lemon house 'La Malora' and also a boat trip.
